

HARRIS PRIMARY SCHOOL

PRE-SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Week ending 4th April 2025

This week, we have been reading 'The Tiger Who Came to Tea'. We spoke about all of the food that the tiger ate and we predicted where the tiger might have come from. Following on from this, we have made tiger masks, exploring colour mixing and using our fine motor skills to tear tissue paper, and role-played the story in our home corner.

Caterpillars

The caterpillars in their cocoons have now been transferred into their mesh habitat ready to transform into butterflies in 7 to 14 days! Mrs Livesey will be taking them home over the Easter break to look after them and will keep you updated with photos on Tapestry if they begin to transform.

All About EYFS

We hope you enjoyed reading the Development Matters age-related expectations for Understanding the World, last week.

After Easter arrangements

Mrs Bilsbrough is officially covering Pre-School after the Easter break with support from Mrs Thompson and Mrs Kinley. Mrs Livesey will remain in school until Friday 2nd May and will then go on maternity leave.

Have a fantastic Easter break!
