

First week of the last half term!

What a busy first (full) week back we have had! Harry the mouse has made an appearance in the classroom, causing all sorts of mayhem and mischief! We have been learning about time and how long 1 minute actually is. We've made special cards for Sunday. We have been learning all about the seasons and we have been practising for our very first, class assembly! Please join us, if you can, to watch our assembly on Thursday 19th June at 9:15am.

Describing words

On Monday, we discovered that someone or something had been chewing up lots of our paper! After a bit of investigating, we found Harry the Mouse! In Literacy, we have been learning about describing words and practised using them to describe Harry's features. Next week we will be looking at rhyming words and learning the nursery rhyme, Hickory Dickory Dock

Oh Baby!

Over the coming weeks in our Understanding the World lessons, we'll be exploring how we grow and change over time. As part of this topic, we'll be looking back at when we were babies to see what has changed—and what's stayed the same! One of our favourite activities is playing 'Guess Who?', where we try to match baby photos to our classmates. This topic will help us learn about the past and present, and how things like photos, clothes, toys, and baby items have changed over time. To support this learning, please email us a baby photo of your child (from birth to 1 year old). If you're happy to share, we'd also love a baby photo of a parent—it makes the game even more fun! Please note that all photos will be displayed in our classroom. Thank you to those who have already emailed in baby photos, we cannot wait to share them with the class, next week! s.grainger@harris.lanc.sch.uk

Surprise Visit!

Mrs Livesey came to visit the class with Baby Luna! The children were very excited to meet Luna and we couldn't believe how tiny she was! Luna is nearly 6 weeks old – it was so special to meet such a new baby. And of course it was lovely to see Mrs Livesey, we miss her so much!

Happy Weekend! The Reception Team 😊
